

hBOBQuiz created on: 7/25/2020 for: dmilem

Question	Title	Author	Reference
1. In which book is looking at someone like looking at a funhouse mirror, the image in it constantly shifting?	Far From the Tree	Robin Benway	Page 340
2. In which book does a character shake more and more, recoiling whenever she senses that the spirits of the dead are near?	Children of Blood and Bone	Tomi Adeyemi	Page 196
3. In which book is it nice to have someone making so much effort to get a girl to do something she would have done anyway?	The Cruel Prince	Holly Black	Page 134
4. In which book does someone send a picture of herself dangling a cherry over her outstretched tongue while wearing a thin tank top and skimpy blush-pink lace underwear?	Odd One Out	Nic Stone	Page 209
5. In which book does someone explain, "She's not saying she actually does that stuff. She's saying this is what they expect her to do"?	On the Come Up	Angie Thomas	Page 150
6. In which book do boys get so angry that they throw hotdogs at each other and because they are still hungry and don't want to waste food, they pick the hotdogs off the grass and eat them?	I Am Not Your Perfect Mexican Daughter	Erika L. Sanchez	Page 183
7. In which book is class participation the only thing required in a class - no exams, no homework assignments?	A Very Large Expanse of Sea	Taherah Mafi	Page 78
8. In which book does a character drive off to make room for the limousines and Bentleys in the drop-off queue?	Scythe	Neal Shusterman	Page 33
9. In which book does a character want his daughter to get out of her downtown apartment, so he buys her a rouse around the corner from him and his wife?	Hey, Kiddo	Jarrett Krosoczka	Page 229
10. In which book does a former romantic couple continue talking by phone since a visit earlier in the year?	Most Dangerous	Steve Sheinkin	Page 176
11. In which book does a character see his friend reflected behind him, no more than a shadow beneath the gauzy layer time has left splattered across the glass?	The Gentleman's Guide to Vice and Virtue	Mackenzi Lee	Page 325
12. In which book does a character find out much later in life that someone is bipolar?	Born a Crime	Trevor Noah	Page 36
13. In which book does a character say, "there will be no talk of politics. That is entirely too coarse a subject for young ladies to discuss, even ladies of color"?	Dread Nation	Justina Ireland	Page 36
14. In which book does a craft drift quietly through the dark, even though no signal has been given?	The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy	Douglas Adams	Page 154

www.mybobteam.com

Permission to use is granted to members of MyBOBTeam.com only.

Page 2

15. In which book has a character not thought about the possibility of someone grabbing info of her from an object -- and the idea sends a shiver through her?	Warcross	Marie Lu	Page 240
--	----------	----------	----------

Permission to use is granted to members of MyBOBTeam.com only.

Question	Title	Author
1. In which book is looking at someone like looking at a funhouse mirror, the image in it constantly shifting?
2. In which book does a character shake more and more, recoiling whenever she senses that the spirits of the dead are near?
3. In which book is it nice to have someone making so much effort to get a girl to do something she would have done anyway?
4. In which book does someone send a picture of herself dangling a cherry over her outstretched tongue while wearing a thin tank top and skimpy blush-pink lace underwear?
5. In which book does someone explain, "She's not saying she actually does that stuff. She's saying this is what they expect her to do"?
6. In which book do boys get so angry that they throw hotdogs at each other and because they are still hungry and don't want to waste food, they pick the hotdogs off the grass and eat them?
7. In which book is class participation the only thing required in a class - no exams, no homework assignments?
8. In which book does a character drive off to make room for the limousines and Bentleys in the drop-off queue?
9. In which book does a character want his daughter to get out of her downtown apartment, so he buys her a rouse around the corner from him and his wife?
10. In which book does a former romantic couple continue talking by phone since a visit earlier in the year?
11. In which book does a character see his friend reflected behind him, no more than a shadow beneath the gauzy layer time has left splattered across the glass?
12. In which book does a character find out much later in life that someone is bipolar?
13. In which book does a character say, "there will be no talk of politics. That is entirely too coarse a subject for young ladies to discuss, even ladies of color"?
14. In which book does a craft drift quietly through the dark, even though no signal has been given?

www.mybobteam.com

Permission to use is granted to members of MyBOBTeam.com only.

Page 4

15. In which book has a character not thought about the possibility of someone grabbing info of her from an object -- and the idea sends a shiver through her?
--	--	--